GETS HER DIVORCE AT NIGHT

Mrs. Charlotte Dillon, the beautiful chorus girl, who for the past six months has been domiciled in the Riverside hotel at Reno, has been granted a divorce from Henry Dillon in Judge Orr's court. The divorce was granted on the grounds of desertion and non-support.

Shortly after Mrs. Dillon, who was the wife of Henry Dillon, one of the most famous equilibrist in the world, arrived in Reno, she was joined there by Frank Dick, a New York millionaire. There were many wine suppers and many joy rides in Dick's car, which cost him $750 express charges from the east.

Rumors reached Reno of a suit having been filed against Dick by Henry Dillon in New York for $100,000 for alienation of Mrs. Dillon's affections, and Dick returned to New York.

Mrs. Dillon is a very beautiful woman and for a time mingled with the other members of the divorce colony; but after a certain dinner one night at the Thomas cafe, and which caused much comment, she was seldom seen with other members of the divorce colony, and lived quietly at the Riverside. Dillon is at present in a New York sanitarium suffering from a nervous breakdown.
